PROGRAMME GUIDE

Bachelor of Arts (Honours) History
January 2020 July 2020 Sessions

Indira Gandhi National Open University
New Delhi

Printed study material is our mainstay in learning paradigm. Our study material is prepared by a team of experts keeping in view the interest of the learner. Each course has a course Expert Committee with distinguished academics and professionals involved in the course preparation. The course material is written in such a manner that the learners can study it by themselves with a little assistance from our Academic Counsellors at the Study Centres. Further, textbooks and reference books are available in the libraries attached to the Study Centres and Regional Centres. Therefore, there is no need for any cheap or condensed guides for pursuing courses of IGNOU. In fact, these may harm the learners. The University strongly advises the learners not to take recourse to such type of guides available in the market

PROGRAMME

THE PEOPLE'S
UNIVERSITY

1. THE UNIVERSITY

The Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU) is the world's largest University. It is a Central University established by an Act of Parliament in 1985, to advance and disseminate learning and knowledge by diverse means, including information communication technology. The objective is to provide opportunities for higher education to a large segment of the population and promote educational wellbeing of the larger society.

In a relatively short time, IGNOU has made a significant contribution in the areas of higher education, community education, extension activities and continual professional development. As a world leader in distance education, it has been conferred with an Award of Excellence by the Commonwealth of Learning (COL), Canada.

IGNOU offers its academic programmes through its 21 Schools of Studies and a network of 67 Regional Centres (including 11 Recognised Regional Centres for the Indian Army, Navy and Assam Rifles), and about 3500 Study Centres (SCs). The University also has a network of 12 Overseas Study Centres (OSC).

The University offers over two hundred academic, professional, vocational, awareness generating and skill-oriented programmes at the level of Certificate, Diploma, Bachelor's Degree, Master's Degree and Doctoral Degree.

Currently the emphasis is being laid the University on developing interactive multimedia supported online learning as well adding value to the traditional distance education delivery mode with modern technology enabled education within the framework of blended learning. It has decided to make the learning material available in digital format. As a national coordinator for SWAYAM, the university is offering 15 courses on SWAYAM with registration of 39,500 learners in 2019. IGNOU is the national coordinator for SWAYAMPBHA with five educational DTH channels in areas of Humanities.

2. SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

The School of Social Sciences (SOSS) is among the larger schools of studies at the University. SOSS offers academic programmes in eight disciplines: Anthropology, Economics, History, Library and Information Science, History, Psychology, Public Administration and Sociology.

Besides, two Centres are housed under the School, Centre for Freedom Struggles and Diaspora Studies (CFDS) and the Centre for Gandhi and Peace Studies and Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Chair on Social Change and Development.

The School offers a number of certificate, diploma and degree programmes at the undergraduate and Masters level. It has also expanded its academic activities and has launched research programmes that apply newer methodologies to elicit a more creative response, both from within a discipline and from inter- disciplinary interactions.

The School also undertakes training programmes in the areas of disaster management, human rights, tourism and other contemporary social issues.

3. B. A. (HONOURS) HISTORY

IGNOU has been one of the earliest universities to introduce credit based academic programmes with a choice of courses. With the introduction of semester system and an evaluation system based on 10 point grading system in 2019, IGNOU joins the Central and State Universities across the country in introducing the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) at the Undergraduate level.

Beginning this January 2020, the School of Social Sciences and the School of Humanities are offering BA Honours programmes. The B.A. Honours in History (Programme Code: BAHIH) has a total of 26 courses, of which 18 are History courses, four inter-disciplinary and two ability and skill enhancement courses. The programme is designed to enable the learner to take courses of their choice, learn at their own pace, and adopt an interdisciplinary approach to learning. It is thus a learner centric programme with flexibility, choices, mobility and employability built into it.

3.1 Duration

The Programme can be completed in a minimum of three years and a maximum of six years.

3.2 Medium of Instruction

This Programme is on offer in both languages, Hindi and English. You must give your option for the language of instruction in your application for admission. However, you can change your option within one month of the first receipt of study materials on payment of the amount prescribed by the University.

3.3 Credits

The university follows the credit system. Each credit is equivalent to 30 hours of study comprising all learning activities (i.e. reading and comprehending print material, listening to audio-based materials, watching video-based materials, attending counselling sessions, completing activities of tutorials or laboratory and writing assignment responses).

3.4 Structure of BA Honours Programme

The BA Honours programme in History is designed to give the learner a strong foundation. The programme is designed to inculcate a sense of History in the students on which they will build in their post graduate years. Here an understanding of Indian, European, Far Eastern and Environmental histories is sought to be imparted.

The programme is of 148 credits with a mix of five types of courses: 14 core courses, eight elective courses (four Discipline Specific Electives and four Generic Electives) and ability enhancement courses (two ability enhancing compulsory courses). While each of the AECCs and SECs is of four credit weightage, all other courses of this programme are six credit courses.

3.4.1 Core Courses: The fourteen core courses of this programme cover all the core areas of the discipline of History. The core courses are basically thematically arranged and cover Indian and European histories. The design of the Indian History courses is chronological covering the period from ancient to modern histories. The courses on rise of modern west give the students an idea about developments in early modern Europe.

Semester	Courses
First	BHIC 101 History of India –I BHIC 102 Social Formations and Cultural Patterns of the Ancient World
Second	BHIC 103 History of India –II BHIC 104 Social Formations and Cultural Patterns of the Medieval World
Third	BHIC 105 History of India –III (C. 750 – 1206) BHIC 106 Rise of the Modern West – I BHIC 107 History of India – IV (C. 1206 – 1550)
Fourth	BHIC 108 Rise of the Modern West – II BHIC 109 History of India –V (C. 1550 – 1605) BHIC 110 History of India –VI (C. 1750 – 1857)
Fifth	BHIC 111 History of Modern Europe (C. 1780 - 1939) BHIC 112 History of India –VII (C. 1605 – 1750)

Sixth	BHIC 113 History of India –VIII (C. 1857 – 1950)
	BHIC 114 History of Modern Europe -II (C. 1780 – 1939)

3.4.2 Discipline Specific Electives: Besides the 14 Core Courses, you will have to study four Discipline Specific elective courses (DSEs) in this programme. These are elective courses in History which seek to enhance your understanding of different histories of different countries. A course on Environmental History of India takes you to different themes and concerns of ecology and environment in Indian History. And then, a course on traditions of History writing in India gives you an overview of how different schools of thought over the years created their own tradition of History writing in India.

The DSE courses are on offer in the Third year, that is, in the Fifth and Sixth semesters of the programme. The faculty of History is offering three DSEs each semester. You will, however, have to study only two DSEs each semester.

Semester	Courses
Fifth	BHIE141 History of China (C. 1840 – 1978)
	BHIE142 History of Modern East Asia: Japan (C. 1868 – 1945)
Sixth	BHIE143 History of Environment
	BHIE144 Traditions of History Writing in India

3.4.3 Ability and Skill Enhancement Compulsory Courses: As the name suggests, these are compulsory courses which you will study, one each in the first and second semesters of the programme. Each AECC is of four credits weight. The courses are BEVAE -181 Environmental Studies. In the second semester, you can opt for either BEGAE 182-English Communication Skills or BHDAE 182 Hindi Bhasha Aur Samprashanas. In the third semester you can opt for a course on Tourism Anthropology (BANS 183). In the fourth semester you can opt for Techniques of Ethnographic Film Making (BSOS 184).

3.4.4 Generic Electives: Generic electives (GEs) are interdisciplinary courses that have been specifically developed by different disciplines of Social Sciences, Humanities and Sciences. They are intended to provide an exposure to other disciplines/subjects. These courses are on offer in the first four semesters of the programme.

The four GEs that are on offer, in sequence, are:
BSOG 171 Indian Society: Images and Realities
BGDG 172 Gender Sensitization: Society and Culture

BSOG 173 Rethinking Development
BPAG 174 Sustainable Development

In order to provide greater choice to the learners, the University will add new SECs and GEs from time to time. These will be made known at the time of re-registration for the Second year.

4. PLANNING YOUR BACHELORS STUDIES

As mentioned earlier, each credit of this programme is equivalent to 30 hours of learner study comprising all learning activities (i.e. reading and comprehending the print material, listening to audios, watching videos, attending counselling sessions, teleconferencing and writing assignment responses). This means that you will have to devote approximately 180 hours of study for a six-credit course (30 x 6) and 120 study hours for a four credit course (30 x 4). Since you have three courses of six credits and one four credit course to complete in the first semester and a similar workload in the second semester, you need to put in a total of 1320 hours of study in a year. This means that you will have to devote around four and half hours of study every day for at least 300 days in a year. You are therefore advised to adjust your reading schedule keeping this workload in view. With this schedule, you will be able to complete all courses of the First year.

Be aware of the differential workload in the three years of the programme. There is a slight increase in the workload as you will have to study four 6 credit courses and a 4-credit course (30 x 28 = 840) each semester. This means that your total study hours will increase to 1680 hours which works out to five and half hours every day for at least 300 days in a year. In the third year, there is a small reduction in the study time as you will have to earn 24 credits in each of the two semesters. You need to be more focused and put in more effort in the Second year of the programme. It is therefore helpful to study consistently throughout the year and not plan to speed up before the examinations.

The University offers a lot of flexibility and openness in the courses and duration for the completion of programmes. You should take full advantage of this flexibility. As indicated earlier you can finish this programme in three by earning 148 credits. If you are not able to complete it within this period, you can take a maximum of six years to complete the programme. It would be better if you plan it in a systematic way. At the beginning of each semester/year, the University will make available study materials and assignments according to scheme of study. It is, however, up to you to decide which courses you will complete in a particular year. Completion of a course would involve studying the course, completing the assignments and obtaining pass marks in both assignments and the term end examination. If you are busy elsewhere and not able to fully devote yourself to the programme you should fix your targets every year. If you feel that instead of 44 credits you would do only 24 or 36 credits in a year, plan it from the beginning of the year, study only those courses, do the assignments for them and appear for term end exam. Carry over the rest to next year. Again, next year, decide your goals for that year. Whenever you decide to do the previous year's course download fresh assignments from IGNOU website, submit them according to the schedule and appear in the term end examination (For details see Section 7.1 of this Programme Guide). Through a proper planning you can finish this programme according to your convenience.

5. FEE STRUCTURE AND SCHEDULE OF PAYMENT

A total of Rs. 9600/- is to be paid for the Bachelor of Arts Honours Programme @ Rs 3200/-. In the First year, in addition to Rs. 3200/-, a Registration fee of Rs. 200/- also has to be paid. The programme fee should be paid only by means of Debit Card/Credit Card through online mode only. Fee once paid is not refundable.

The University can revise the programme fee. In that case, the revised fee shall be payable by you as per the schedule of payment notified by the university.

Although the Bachelor of Arts programme is a semester-based programme, registration is done annually. Just as you have registered for the first two semesters at the start of the programme, you will have to re-register for the Second year (third and fourth semesters) and Third year (fourth and fifth semesters) before the beginning of the academic year.

The submission of Re Registration form and payment of programme fee must be done at the beginning of each year, as per schedule given below, by online mode only, by means of Debit Card/Credit Card.

Schedule for Re-Registration*

For January Session	For July Session	Late Fee
1st August to 2 nd October	1st Feb to 31st March	Nil
3rd October to 31st October	1st April to 30th April	₹ 200.00
1st November to 30th November	1st May to 31st May	₹ 500.00
1st December to 20th December	1st June to 20th June	₹ 1000.00

* As and when it is necessary, the University can revise the programme fee and the revised fee shall be payable by you as per schedule of payment notified by the University.

Timely payment of programme fees is the responsibility of the learner. The learner is expected to remit the fees as early as possible without waiting for the last date. Non-payment of fee would result in the withdrawal of access to study material and permission to write the examinations. It may also result in the cancellation of your admission. If any learner wilfully appears in an examination without proper registration for a course, disciplinary action shall be taken against him or her as per rules of the University.

6. INSTRUCTIONAL SYSTEM

The methodology of instruction adopted by the University is different from that in the conventional universities. The Open University system is more learner-oriented in which the learner is an active participant in the teaching-learning process. Most of the instruction is imparted through distance rather than face-to-face communication.

The University follows a multi-media approach for instruction. It comprises of

- Self-Learning Material
- Audio-video programmes transmitted through radio and television
- Teleconferencing sessions
- Face-to-face counselling at Study Centres by Academic Counsellors
- Assignments/ Tutorials/ Practicals/ Dissertation/ Project work

6.1 Course Material

Course material, in print or eBook format, is the primary form of instruction. You should concentrate mainly on the course materials that are sent to you in the form of printed books or eBooks. The course material would be sufficient to write assignment responses and prepare for the Term End Examination (TEE). We would, however, suggest you to read additional material, especially those given in the Suggested Reading section of the course material.

The course material prepared by the University is self-learning in nature. Each course is printed in the form of a single book or eBook. The course is divided into a number of Blocks. A six credit course generally has four to five Blocks. Each Block consists of Units (minimum two to maximum five units). Normally, the Units covered in a Block have a thematic unity. The introduction section of the book provides an overview of the course, its objectives, guidelines for studying the material, etc. The Block introduction explains the coverage of the Block as a whole as well as the coverage of each Unit in that Block.

Each Unit is structured in a way to facilitate self-study by you. Each Unit begins with learning Objectives which will give you an idea on what you are expected to learn from the Unit. The Introduction provides an overview of the major theme of the unit. An attempt is made to forge a link with the topics of the previous Units and the topic to be covered in the Unit. This is followed by the main text, which is divided, into various sections and subsections. At the end of each section we have provided questions for self-evaluation under the heading of Check Your Progress. You should attempt this part, as it will help you in assessing the immediate absorption and check your understanding of the topic. Questions in Check Your Progress are for your practice only, and you should not submit answers to these questions to the University for assessment. Hint answers to the Check Your Progress exercises are provided at the end of the unit. We have not provided the full length answers, as we would like to encourage you to write in your own words and not rely on memorizing the course material.

The section Let Us Sum Up/Summary/Conclusion gives a brief account of what has been discussed in the Unit. This summary enables you to recall the main points covered in the Unit. Each unit ends with References which gives the list of books and articles that have been consulted to prepare the unit. In addition, at the end of each Block/Course, a list of Suggested Readings is given. Some of these books listed in this section will be available in the libraries at the Regional Centres and select Study Centres.

In order to comprehend the SLMs, read the Units carefully and note down the important points. You can use the space in the margin of the printed pages for making notes and writing your comments. While reading the Units, you may mark the difficult words and look for the meaning of such words in a dictionary. If you still do not understand something, consult your counsellor during the face-to-face sessions at the Study Centre for clarification.

Dispatch of Study Material

The dispatch of material will start once the online process of registration is complete. You can expect to receive your study material within one month of closing of the registration for the programme. If any course material is missing or you receive wrong or defective material, please address your query to the Regional Centre or write to Student Services Centre at ssc@ignou.ac.in.

For the students who have applied for digitized version, detailed information is available on the IGNOU website.

6.2 Academic Counselling

In distance education, face-to-face contact between the learners and their academic tutors/ counsellors is an important activity. The purpose of such an interaction is to answer some of your questions and clarify your doubts, which may not be possible through any other means of communication. It is also intended to provide you an opportunity to meet fellow learners.

There are experienced academic counsellors at the Study Centres to provide academic counselling and guidance to you in the courses that you have selected for study. The academic counselling sessions for each of the courses are held at suitable intervals throughout the academic session. Attendance in the academic counselling sessions for theory courses is not compulsory, but we would suggest you to attend these sessions as they may be useful in certain respects, such as to share your views on the subject with teachers and fellow learners, comprehend some of the complex ideas or difficult issues, and get clarifications for any doubts which you would not otherwise try to raise.

Face-to-face counselling will be provided to you at the Study Centre assigned to you. You should note that the academic counselling sessions will be very different from the usual classroom teaching or lectures. Academic counsellors will not be delivering lectures or speeches. They will try to help you to overcome difficulties, which you face while studying for this programme. In these sessions, you must look into the subject-based difficulties and any other issues arising out of such difficulties. Besides, some of the audio and video material that is available at that time will be played in the counselling sessions. The University normally organizes six to seven academic counseling sessions for a 4-credit and nine to ten sessions for a six credit course. In case there are less than 10 students in a Study Centre, then intensive counselling sessions will be held which essentially means that 40 per cent of the prescribed counselling sessions will be conducted within a week's time.

Before you attend the academic counselling sessions, please go through your course material and note down the points to be discussed. Unless you have gone through the Units, there may not be much to discuss. Try to concentrate on relevant and important issues. Try also to understand each other's points of view. You may also establish personal contact with your fellow participants to get mutual help for academic purposes. Try to get the maximum possible help from your academic counsellors.

6.3 Study Centre

To provide effective student support, we have set up a number of Study Centres all over the country. You will be allotted one of these Study Centres taking into consideration your place of residence or work. However, each Study Centre can handle only a limited number of students and despite our best efforts, it may not always be possible to allot the Study Centre of your choice. The particulars regarding the Study Centre to which you are assigned will be communicated to you.

Every Study Centre will have:

- A Coordinator who will coordinate different activities at the centre.
- An Assistant Coordinator and other support staff appointed on a part-time basis.
- Academic Counsellors in different courses to provide counselling and guidance to you in the courses you have chosen.

A Study Centre will have six major functions:

Counselling: Face-to-face counselling for the courses will be provided at the Study Centres. As mentioned earlier, there will be nine to ten academic counselling sessions for a 6-credit course and six to seven sessions for a 4-credit course.

The schedule of the counselling sessions will be communicated to you by the Coordinator of your Study Centre.

Evaluation of Assignments: Tutor Marked Assignments (TMA) will be evaluated by the Academic Counsellors appointed for different courses at the Study Centre. These assignments will be returned to you with tutor's comments and marks obtained. These comments will help you in your studies.

Library: For each course, some of the books suggested under 'Suggested Readings' will be available in Library at the Regional Centre and select Study Centres.

Information and Advice: At the Study Centre, you will get relevant information regarding the courses offered by the University, academic counselling schedules, examination schedule, etc. You will also get guidance in choosing your elective and application oriented courses.

Audio-Video Facilities: The Study Centre is equipped with audio-video facilities to help you make use of the audio and video materials prepared for different courses. Media notes, describing the contents of each programme, will also be available at the Study Centre. This will help you to know the contents of each programme.

Interaction with Fellow-learners: The Study Centre gives you an opportunity to interact with fellow learners

Study Centre is the contact point for you. The University cannot send all the communication to all the students individually. All important information is communicated to the Coordinators of the Study Centres and Regional Directors. The Coordinators would display a copy of such important circular/notification on the notice board of the Study Centre for the benefit of all IGNOU learners. You are, therefore, advised to get in touch with your Study Centre for day-to-day information about assignments, submission of examination forms, TEE date-sheet, declaration of result, etc.

6.4 Interactive Radio Counselling

The University has the facility of interactive counselling through All India Radio network all over India. You can participate in it by tuning in to your area Radio station. Experts from various discipline areas are available for this counselling. Students can put across their questions to these experts by using the telephone. The telephone numbers are announced by the respective Radio Stations. This counselling is available on all days. The topic for each session of the interactive radio programme is available in the Gyanvani section of the University website.

6.5 Gyan Darshan

IGNOU in collaboration with Doordarshan now has an exclusive Educational TV

Channel called Gyan Darshan. It is available through cable TV network. The channel telecasts educational programmes for 24 hours every day. Live telecast is from 3-5 p.m. and repeat from 8-10 p.m. Apart from programmes of IGNOU, it will have educational programmes produced by various national education institutions. You should try to get access to it through your cable operator. The schedule of programmes and live sessions is available at the study centers one month in advance. You can also get the schedule of programmes and live sessions from the University website

6.6 Gyan Vani

Gyan Vani is an educational FM Radio network providing programmes covering different aspects and levels of education including Primary and Secondary Education, Adult Education, Technical and Vocational Education, Higher Education and Extension Education. There will be programmes on various aspects and courses of Bachelor of Arts. The schedule of the programmes is uploaded on the University website.

6.7 Teleconference/EDUSAT

To reach our learners spread in different parts of the country we take the help of teleconferencing. These sessions are conducted from Delhi. The students can attend these at the regional centres and specified study centres of IGNOU. It is a one way video and two way audio facility. The teleconferencing is available on Gyan Darshan-2 and Edusat. The faculty members at Delhi and other experts as resource persons participate in these sessions. You can put your problems and questions to these experts through the telephone available at receiving centres. These will help in resolving your queries related to courses and other general information pertaining to the Bachelors of Arts programme.

7. EVALUATION

The system of evaluation followed by the University is also different from that of conventional universities. IGNOU has a multitier system of evaluation.

- Self-assessment exercises within each unit of study.
- Continuous evaluation mainly through assignments which are tutor-marked, practical assignments and seminar/ workshops/extended contact programmes, etc. depending on the nature of the course opted for.
- The Term End Examinations.
- Project/Practical work depending upon the requirement of the course.

The evaluation consists of two parts: i) continuous evaluation through assignments, and ii) term end examination. In the final result, all the assignments of a course carry 30% weightage while 70% weightage is given for the Term End Examination (TEE). University follows a grading system for continuous evaluation as well as term-end examination. It is done on a ten point scale using the letter grades as given below: The University has decided to provide numerical marking also in the grade card and award of division for the Bachelor of Arts.

Letter Grade	Numerical Grade	Percentage
O (Outstanding)	10	≥ 85
A+ (Excellent)	9	≥ 75 to < 85
A (Very Good)	8	≥ 65 to < 75
B+ (Good)	7	≥ 55 to < 65
B (Above Average)	6	≥ 50 to < 55
C (Average)	5	≥ 40 to < 50
D (Pass)	4	≥ 35 to < 40
F (Fail)	0	< 35
Ab (Absent)	0	Absent

You are required to score at least 35% marks (Grade D) in both continuous evaluation (assignments) as well as the term-end examination of each course. In the overall computation also you must get at least 35% marks (Grade D) in each course to claim the B.A. degree. The scores of continuous evaluation and term-end examination are not complementary to each other for qualifying a course.

Students who do not qualify in the term-end examination are allowed to take up the Term End Examination in the next semester. It means you can take the TEE of the first year courses during the second year of your study. Similarly, second year courses can be carried over to the third year.

7.1 Assignments

Assignments constitute the continuous evaluation. The marks that you secure in the assignments will be counted in your final result. As mentioned earlier, an assignment of a course carries 30% weightage. You are therefore advised to take your assignment seriously. A simple omission on your part may put you in great inconvenience later.

For each course of this programme, you have to do two to three Tutor Marked Assignments (TMAs) depending upon the nature of the course. The TMA for each semester can be downloaded from the Student Zone of the University website.

You have to complete the assignment within the due dates specified in the assignment booklet. You will not be allowed to appear for the term-end examination for any course if you do not submit the assignment in time for that course. If you appear in term-end examination, without submitting the assignments, the result of the term-end examination is liable to be cancelled.

Ensure that your assignment responses are complete in all respects. Before submission you should ensure that you have answered all the questions in all assignments. Incomplete assignment responses may affect your grades adversely.

The main purpose of TMA is to test your comprehension of the learning materials you receive from us and also to help you get through the courses. The evaluators/academic counsellors after correcting the assignments return them back to you with their comments and marks. The comments will guide you in your study and help in improving it. It is therefore important that you collect the evaluated TMA along with a copy of the assessment sheet containing the comments of the evaluator on your performance.

The content provided in the printed course materials should be sufficient for answering the assignments. Please do not worry about the non-availability of extra reading materials for working on the assignments. However, if you have access to other books, you may make use of them. The assignments are designed in such a way as to help you concentrate mainly on the course material and exploit your personal experience.

You have to submit your assignment response sheets to the Coordinator of the Study Centre assigned to you. For your own record, retain a copy of all the assignment responses which you submit to the Coordinator. If you do not get back your duly evaluated tutor marked assignments along with a copy of the assessment sheet containing comments of the evaluator on your assignment within a month after submission, please try to get it personally from your Study Centre. This may help you to improve upon future assignments.

Keep duplicate copies of assignment responses of TMAs submitted to Study Centres. They may be required to be produced at Student Evaluation Division on demand. Also maintain an account of the corrected assignment responses received by you after evaluation. This will help you to represent your case to the University in case any problem arises.

If you do not get a pass grade in any assignment, you have to submit it again. Get fresh assignments from the Student Zone tab of the University website. However, once you get the pass grade in an assignment, you cannot re-submit it for improvement of grade. Assignments are not subject to re-evaluation except for factual errors, if any, committed by the evaluator. The discrepancy noticed by you in the evaluated assignments should be brought to the notice of the Coordinator of the Study Centre, so that the correct score is forwarded by him/her to the Student Evaluation Division at Headquarters.

In case you find that the score indicated in the assignment sheet of your Tutor Marked Assignment has not been correctly reflected or is not entered in your grade card, you are advised to contact the Coordinator of your Study Centre with a request to forward the correct award list to the Student Evaluation Division at the Headquarters.

Do not enclose or express doubts for clarification, if any, about study material or assignment along with the assignment. Send your doubts in a separate cover to the Director of the concerned School at IGNOU, Maidan Garhi, New Delhi - 110068. Give your complete enrolment number, name, address, title of the Course, and the number of the Unit or the assignment, etc. on top of your letter. If you have any specific grievances, you use the iGRAM (<http://igram.ignou.ac.in>) platform for an early response from the University.

- 4) Go through the Units on which the assignments are based. Make some points regarding the question and then rearrange those points in a logical order and draw up a rough outline of your answer. While answering an essay type question, give adequate attention to introduction and conclusion. The introduction must provide a brief interpretation of the question and how you propose to develop it. The conclusion must summarise your response to the question. Make sure that the answer is logical and coherent, and has clear connections between sentences and paragraphs. The answer should be relevant to the question given in the assignment. Make sure that you have attempted all the main points of the question. Once you are satisfied with your answer, write down the final version neatly and underline the points you wish to emphasise. While solving numerical problems, use proper format and give working notes wherever necessary.
- 5) Use only foolscap size paper for your response and tie all the pages carefully. Avoid using very thin paper. Allow a 4 cm margin on the left and at least 4 lines in between each answer. This may facilitate the evaluator to write useful comments in the margin at appropriate places.
- 6) Write the responses in your own hand. Do not print or type the answers. Do not copy your answers from the Units/Blocks sent to you by the University. It is advised to write your answers in your own words as it will help in grasping the study material.

- 11) After submitting the TMA, get the acknowledgement from the Coordinator on the prescribed assignment remittance-cum-acknowledgement card.
- 12) In case you have requested for a change of Study Centre, you should submit your TMA only to the original Study Centre until the change of Study Centre is notified by the University.
- 13) If you find that there is any factual error in evaluation of your assignments e.g. any portion of your assignment response has not been evaluated or the total of score recorded on your assignment response is incorrect, you should approach the Coordinator of your study centre for correction and transmission of correct score to headquarters.

7.2 Term End Examination

THE PEOPLE'S

DETAILS OF CORE COURSES (Hons)

History of India-I (BHIC 101)

6 credits

History is concerned about change and historical change. Historical analysis allows us to explore the formation of varied societies in a region. Investigation of causes and formulation of explanations along with a more finer reading of the text allows us to arrive at a nuanced understanding of the historical events. There may be multiple interpretations and varied perspectives, but what is important is how evidence is sought and understood, how explanations are forwarded. This process depends upon a meticulous and honest investigation aided by logical analysis and scientific method. This course presents historical analysis along these lines.

We have moved away from constructing the histories of kings and dynasties. Now the focus is on the investigation of factors which have shaped people, events and institutions that make the Indian society. It is with these aims that the present Course is designed. The period is from the earliest times to the decline of the Mauryanempire. The Course is divided into four Themes which contain a number of units. History of India-III (c.750-1206) (BHIC 105)

6 credits

This Course deals with the history of India from the mid eighth century CE to the beginning of the thirteenth century. Significant changes took place during this period. Some scholars believe that there was a further consolidation of the feudal structure which had come into existence by the Gupta period. However, others believe that the period between the 8th till the 12 centuries witnessed the third phase of urban growth. One thing that was certain was that agriculture expanded considerably in this period, regional polities emerged, there was an efflorescence of regional languages and literature, the proximity between certain merchant guilds and kings was established, architecture especially in the field of temple architecture, flourished. So did art, for example the Cola bronzes are known for their beauty and finesse. This period functioned as a gateway which ushered in the 'new' period of Indian history-the Sultanate.

Rise of Modern West-II (BHIC 108)

6 credits

This paper will focus on the economic and political rise of Europe during the modern period. Although the Renaissance may be termed as the beginning of European modernity at the intellectual level, it was during the seventeenth century that modern Europe was shaped more comprehensively. The 'seventeenth-century crisis' has been considered as a general crisis affecting the European economy, polity and society quite thoroughly which set off the processes which radically altered Europe. The great religious divide between Catholicism and Protestantism sharply divided European state and society in this period. Besides this, English revolution (at the political level), scientific revolution and philosophical revolution (at the intellectual level) and the rise of mercantilism (at the economic level) were fundamental changes during the seventeenth century. This dynamic carried on into the eighteenth century. Absolutism and Constitutional Monarchy were two important political forms which were consolidated in this period. One of the most important developments in the eighteenth century was American war of independence which freed one of the most important European colonial possessions. However, the European economies, which had taken some steps towards modern industrialization, sought to reorient the colonial expansion and trade patterns establishing new colonies in the Indian Ocean, the Caribbean and elsewhere.

and so on. They also argue that the constructed notions of gender, gender binaries based on sex/gender/public/private dichotomy and soon need to be critically engaged.
